ABOUT US

In college, we created an amazing friendship that led us to a forever kind of love. Our biggest bragging factor in life is the fact that at such a young age, we built a strong foundation for our marriage. We're each other's best friend. We are the perfect combination of that goofy, smart, professional couple. Pablo is just silly, he makes crazy faces and he can turn any conversation into a joke. Jessica is a low key jokester. We were surprised with a four-year-old daughter six months into our marriage, she was from Pablo's previous relationship. Although it wasn't previously known or planned, she made us closer to becoming whole. She will make the best big sister! God has truly blessed us, and we've been breaking barriers together ever since. As a family we enjoy going on adventures together; whether it be spontaneous Texas road trips, beach getaways or a Disney escape, we make every moment count. Time together is the best kind of adventure.

OUR HOME & PETS

Our home is located on top of a hill in a beautiful Texas neighborhood surrounded by mature trees and serene nature, near a big city. We are close to all the amazing features the city has to offer, like theater, amusement parks, museums, sporting venues, and beaches. Our backyard faces a neighborhood pond with ducks. Everyone walks or rides their bikes by the trails by the pond with their kids and pets. We are excited for the day we get to walk around our amazing area with a stroller and our daughter. Our corgi loves going for walks and adores the attention from our neighbors during his walks or while hanging outside in the backyard.

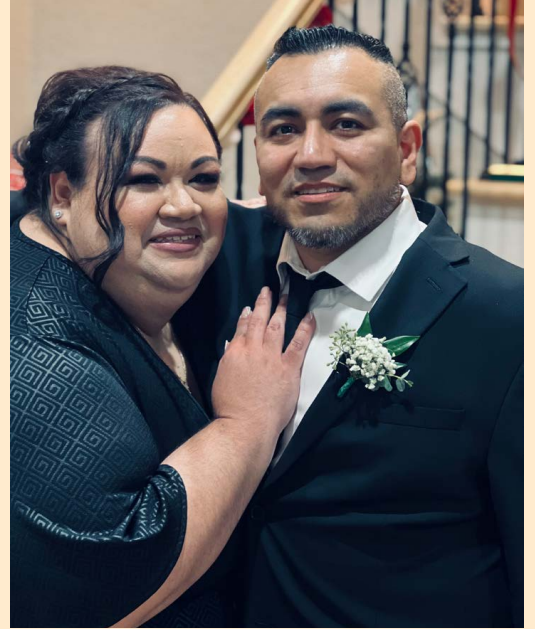

what led us to adoption

Family is so important to us. After years of infertility treatments and loss, God put it in our hearts to grow our family through adoption. When we first started researching our options, a family friend offered to give us the opportunity to adopt their child. They knew our desire for a baby, and we quickly said yes. Unfortunately, they suffered a miscarriage. We realized it didn't matter how this prayer was going to be answered, we were ready to receive this blessing with open arms. What truly inspired us not to give up hope was when Pablo's cousin adopted this amazing little girl. She truly completed them as a family. That's what we are truly looking forward to: meeting that missing piece of our family.

our families & traditions

Jessica grew up surrounded by a lot of family, primarily her mom, aunts, uncles, and cousins; she recently met her younger half brother and his family. Jessica's father passed away a year ago, but she has always had a close relationship with her parents, especially her mother. She has over 28 first cousins on her dad's side, and she's the oldest out of 13 on her mom's side. Jessica was the go-to baby helper for all of her cousins. Her family talks daily. Near or far, they are in constant communication.

Pablo grew up the oldest of eight children. Although his extended family is smaller, he has an amazing relationship with his siblings. They all live within blocks of each other, and we have a constant family game night. We love to bbq; play games; celebrate birthdays, accomplishments, and milestones; or just get together because we missed one another.

Our family truly starts with our daughter who is now a college student. She was conceived before we met, and when we found her, we were instantly in love. She made us parents before we even knew we were ready for it. Not a day goes by that we are not forever grateful for unexpected surprises. Family is everything.

Dear Expectant Mother,

Thank you for even looking at our profile and for considering us as prospective parents for your precious baby. You could be our miracle. You're everything we have prayed for with your loving, brave consideration of adoption and us. There are truly no words to fully express our appreciation for your sacrifice.

Our difficult journey with infertility and loss makes us appreciate your strength even more. Our promise to you, if you choose us, is that your baby will be absolutely loved beyond measure from the moment you choose us through all the days of their life. We promise to provide security, stability, and a cheering section for their smallest milestones while loving them through it all. We share custody of Pablo's daughter who will be the best big sister of all time, raising her has made us yearn to grow our family more. We will do everything possible to ensure they have the best upbringing possible, full of traditions, silly memories, laughs, adventures, and love. Love is the one thing your baby will be flooded with; after all they are everything we have ever prayed for. You and your baby could be our answered prayer.

THANK YOU FOR CONSIDERING US,

Jessica & Pablo
