

Jayro + Amir

our story

about us

We have been together for over fifteen years and married for ten. It was love at first sight. Amir is a loving, caring, and compassionate person who strives to put everyone's needs before his own. His personality is a perfect match for his career in the service industry as a district manager. Jayro is a very loving, understanding, and compassionate person as well. We have both lived in Illinois our whole lives. We enjoy being outdoors and exploring nature in various parts of the country. We both have a love of traveling, but we also enjoy a night at home watching a movie or game night with our family. We love children more than anything in this world, and we are always so eager to visit with family so that we are able to play with the kids.

our home + pets

We live in a beautiful two-story home in a very friendly community that has many growing families. We enjoy interacting with our neighbors and the children in our area during the summer. The city we live in is very welcoming. We have an excellent school system. We also enjoy every moment we get to spend with our two dogs. We have Molly, a miniature poodle, and Charlie, a Pomeranian.

what led us to adoption

We have always known we wanted to start a family. We always felt in our hearts that adoption was the right path for us. This is not a decision we take lightly. We love children and always jump at the chance to watch our nieces, nephews, or friends' kids so they can get a night out. This is what led us to our adoption journey. We are so excited to start this journey with you. We both have endless love to give and cannot wait to share our family, our home, and our lives with a child.

dear expectant mother,

While we sit here and try to combine the right words together, we are finding it difficult to put our exact feelings into words. We know this is one of the hardest decisions you will make in your life. Although we will never truly understand the pain you feel, we respect you for making the best decision for yourself and your baby. We are filled with gratitude with the possibility of becoming your baby's parents. If you choose us, we promise to nourish, love, and encourage your baby every step of the way.

We both had enjoyable childhoods filled with love and laughter. We hope to be able to recreate some of these beautiful memories with your baby. We will actively be involved in your child's upbringing by giving them the opportunity to join in our community, taking trips to various destinations, and working side by side with them on schoolwork. The most important role we will take on while doing this is teaching them to be kind and accepting of others.

We thank you from the bottom of our hearts for taking the time to consider us to be the loving parents to your beautiful baby boy or girl. You are an amazing individual with incredible strength

With Love,

Jayro and Amir
