MY ADOPTION STORY

I always knew as a child that I wanted to be a mother and to adopt. This will be my second adoption. Timing is everything, and now is the right time for us to expand our blessed family. My daughter is now in the second grade, and we are so excited and overjoyed to add to our family. My daughter is so looking forward to becoming a big sister and helping with her new baby brother. God is the foundation I will continue to raise my children on because I know with God all things are possible and their opportunities are limitless. The whole world will be theirs to explore and learn about different people, languages, and cultures.

ABOUT ME

I am a banker and one of six children. I grew up in the inner city. I always dreamed of a better life and promised my mother I would go to school and get her out of there. I kept that promise, and now we live in a beautiful home in Texas. I have never been married, but I look forward to that opportunity one day. We enjoy traveling all over the world.

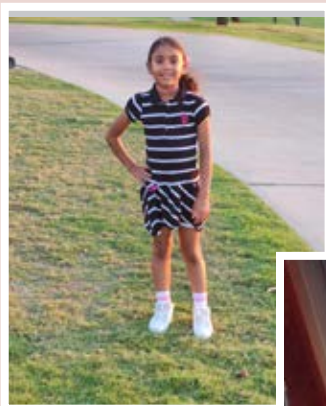

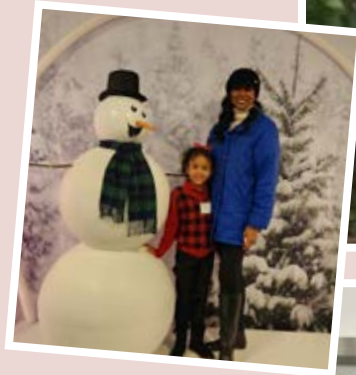

MY HOME

My mother, daughter, and I live in a five-bedroom, four-bath home with a large kitchen, huge gameroom, and movie theater. We love to entertain for the holidays. We live in a great community with lots of families, and it is also one of the best school districts in Texas. My daughter goes to a private Christian school and has lots of friends. We have lots of parks in the neighborhood that my daughter likes to go to, and there's also gymnastics, swimming, sports clubs, restaurants, and shopping.

AND

traditions

I have three sisters, two brothers, and nieces and nephews. We get together for birthdays, Super Bowl parties, holidays, and Sunday dinners after church. Every year we take a family vacation out of the country to relax and unwind. We have been to the Virgin Islands, St. Kitts, Puerto Rico, Jamaica, Barbados, Cancun, Riviera Maya, Belize, St. Lucia, Cozumel, Maui, and the Cayman Islands.

Dear
EXPECTANT MOTHER,

I am so honored and humbled for the opportunity you have given me to introduce myself to you and for the consideration of becoming a parent to your child. I respect your courage and commitment to finding a family who will love, nurture, and care for this little blessing from God and you.

I promise I will give everything I have to be that person for your child. I truly appreciate your time and consideration of me. Please know that I am praying and will continue to pray for you, the baby, and myself throughout this entire process, knowing that God is on all of our side. May the Lord bless you, watch guard over you, and keep you.

With Love, Barbara
