about us

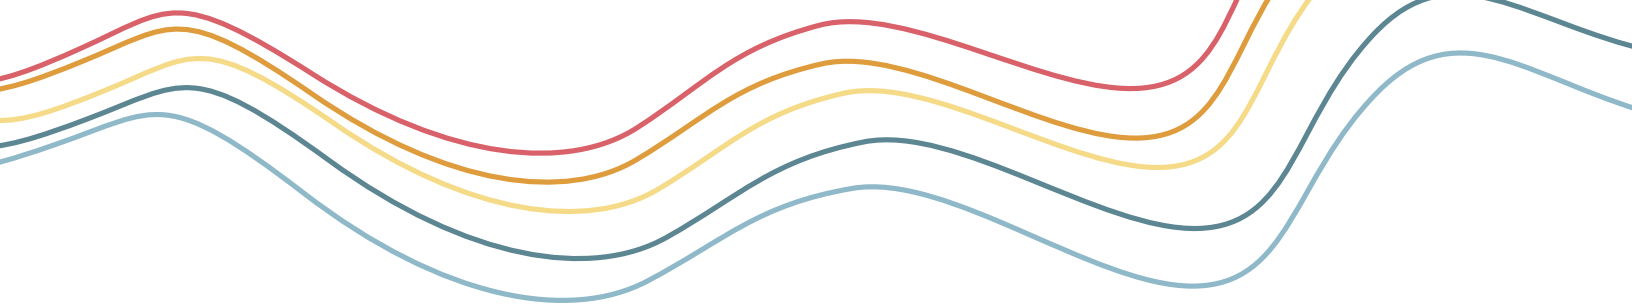

Hi! We're Art and Gina, a fun-loving couple with a passion for adventure and a deep sense of home. Together, we've built a life centered around love, laughter, and shared experiences. Art is a community health worker and artist manager, passionate about helping others while staying creative. He enjoys Muay Thai, cooking, and traveling with Gina to explore new places and try new foods. Gina, a dedicated physician, is inspired by giving back to underserved communities. When she's not working, she loves running, reading, traveling, and sharing meals with friends and family. Together, we share a love for food, travel, and each other, maintaining a relationship built on deep respect, open communication, and unwavering loyalty. Whether we're hiking, working out, or having a cozy movie night, we're excited to bring these values into our journey as parents.

OUR HOME

Our home in California is a cozy and loving space in a family-oriented neighborhood with excellent schools, friendly neighbors, and easy access to parks, playgrounds, and scenic hiking trails along a beautiful river. We cherish the strong sense of community here and love the family-friendly atmosphere, which offers endless opportunities for fun and growth. Our home is a safe, nurturing place filled with warmth, laughter, and support. We're excited to create lasting memories and fill our home with even more love, curiosity, and the joy of raising a child.

WHAT LED US TO ADOPTION

We've dreamed of becoming parents since we met in 2017, and adoption feels like the perfect path for us. Art's mom was adopted, making this journey deeply meaningful and personal. Her story showed us how transformative it is to give a child a loving, supportive home, and we're honored to carry on that tradition. We can't wait to welcome a child into a home filled with love, joy, and encouragement—plus a few of Art's signature dad jokes! Parenthood is a journey we're ready for, and we're excited to grow our family through adoption.

AND FRIENDS

Family is the heart of our lives, and we are blessed with a strong, loving network eager to welcome a child. Art's sister and her wife live close by with their son. Their warmth and kindness create a joyful, supportive environment where your child will form lasting bonds. Our clever and caring nephew is excited to be a cousin and role model.

Gina's friends will be maternal godparents. Their humor, love, and shared values make them invaluable in our lives. Gina is also the proud godmother to the daughter of her lifelong friends in Phoenix. We imagine her and your child forming a beautiful, enduring friendship. Rounding out our circle are a couple who feel like family. Always present for celebrations and everyday moments, they can't wait to share their wisdom, love, and humor with your little one.

Our family and friends bring unwavering support and love, creating a nurturing, joy-filled environment where your child will thrive. We can't wait to share this incredible journey with them and with you.

DEAR

*expectant
mother*

Thank you for considering adoption and for taking the time to learn about us. We cannot imagine the depth of emotions you may be experiencing, but we admire your courage, love, and selflessness in deciding what is best for your child. It is an honor to share our story with you, and we hope it gives you a glimpse of the life and love we aspire to provide.

We are fully committed to creating a home where your child feels unconditionally loved, valued, and supported. Family is central to our lives, and we take great joy in our traditions, whether it's festive gatherings, Sunday dinners, or quiet nights at home. We envision offering your child a life filled with laughter, exploration, and opportunity—a life where they feel free to express themselves and follow their dreams.

We look forward to sharing everyday moments like cooking together, reading bedtime stories, and exploring new places. We will guide your child with kindness and empathy, ensuring they grow up surrounded by love, understanding, and endless encouragement. Your child will always know about the strength, care, and deep love that led to your decision, and you will remain an important part of their story.

Thank you for considering us as potential parents for your child. We hold immense respect for your journey and are here to support you in any way you need. Please know we are sending you love and gratitude every step of the way.

WITH HEARTFELT THANKS,

Gina and Art
