

Nick & Jordan

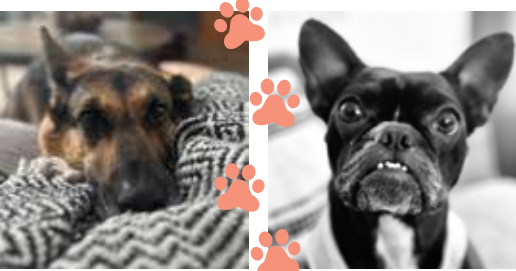

about us

We're Nick and Jordan. Together, we manage vacation rentals in beautiful Southwest Michigan, a career that fuels our love for travel and community. Nick is known for his exceptional attention to detail, and Jordan is passionate about creating memorable experiences for our guests. We both take a lot of pride in what we do. When we're not working, we love to travel and explore new places, both within the country and internationally. Our weekends often include game nights or dinners with friends, filled with laughter and good times. We also enjoy unwinding by going to the movies or catching the occasional play. Family, friends, and our shared adventures are the heart of our lives, and we can't wait to welcome a child into our loving home.

our home & pets

Our home is located in a charming beach town in Michigan, a destination that people travel from all over to experience. We are just a 15-minute walk from the beach, a kids' park, and a splash pad, making our neighborhood perfect for family outings and fun-filled days. Our home was built pre-1900 and is filled with character. It is warm and inviting, with rotating decor for every holiday. We share our home with two wonderful dogs: Tasha, a German Shepherd, and Maya, a French Bulldog. Tasha is loyal and protective, while Maya brings boundless energy and joy. They are both gentle and loving.

what led us to adoption

Our journey to adoption stems from a desire to expand our family. We've explored many places and forged meaningful connections with people from all walks of life. These experiences have deepened our appreciation of sharing our home and hearts with a child. What excites us most about this opportunity is the chance to nurture and support a child, creating a lifetime of cherished memories together. We look forward to embracing the joys and challenges of parenthood, instilling values of kindness, curiosity, and resilience. Our home is filled with love, laughter, and adventure, and we can't wait to offer a child the same warmth and happiness that fills our lives.

our families & traditions

While we may not see all of them often, we have a large family when combined. Together we have seven siblings, many cousins, nieces, nephews, uncles, aunts, and two grandparents. We visit with our parents on special occasions and holidays for games and shared meals, where often siblings or extended family are also present. One example of this is our annual Christmas Eve party with Jordan's extended family. One of Nick's nieces is very involved in our lives and visits our house frequently for extended weekends, when we watch movies, play games, enjoy dining out or going shopping. On Jordan's side of the family, we frequently spend time with one of Jordan's aunts for activities, at least once per month.

OUR LETTER TO A

loving mother

As we sit down to write this, our hearts are filled with gratitude, respect, and admiration for you. We can only imagine the depth of the decision you're making, and we want to acknowledge the immense strength and courage it takes to consider adoption for your precious child.

From the bottom of our hearts, we thank you for considering us as potential parents for your baby. Your selflessness and love are evident in the choice you're considering, and we are profoundly grateful for the opportunity to be considered. If we are chosen, your child will be welcomed into a warm and loving home, surrounded by joy, laughter, and endless support. We look forward to nurturing and guiding them through life's many adventures, ensuring they grow up with values of kindness, curiosity, and resilience. Our lives will forever be enriched beyond measure by their presence, and we can't wait to create beautiful memories together!

We understand that this journey is not without its challenges, and we want you to know that we are here with open hearts and minds. Your strength and love will always be a part of this child's story, and we will ensure they know how much they are loved each and every day.

With love,

Nick and Jordan
