

Travis & Luis

about us

We are Luis and Travis, two fun-loving Harry Potter fans. Luis, a Ravenclaw, and Travis, a Slytherin, fell in love at a work convention nine years ago. Luis develops education programs for work and travels the U.S. delivering leadership keynote speeches, while Travis has spent the last nine years working with teams to attract and retain talent. Luis is a caring, charismatic, and funny person who lights up a room, and Travis is a quiet, caring person who enjoys spending time with close friends and family. When we are not working, you can find us exploring new coffee shops and restaurants or relaxing in our basement watching a movie or playing video games. We have had the privilege of traveling all over the U.S. and Spain. Some of our favorite destinations have been New York to attend Broadway shows, Orlando to visit Hogwarts at Universal Studios, and Gatlinburg for a relaxing stay in the mountains.

OUR HOME & PETS

We live in a wonderful neighborhood full of families, walking trails, parks, fields, and a clubhouse with a pool. Our home offers six bedrooms, a finished basement for playing, a loft space, and a fenced-in yard. It's on a quiet street in the neighborhood and close to a cute downtown with shops and a library. Our immediate family lives within 90 minutes of our home, making it the perfect location for us. Cody Bear is our 14-year-old golden retriever eagerly anticipating his human sibling's arrival.

WHAT LED US TO ADOPTION

We want to express our genuine excitement about the prospect of loving, caring for, and raising your precious baby. The thought of providing a loving, nurturing, and secure home for your child fills us with overwhelming joy and anticipation. What excites us most is the chance to offer your baby a bright future filled with endless possibilities. We are eager to witness their first steps, hear their laughter, and support their dreams as they grow. Travis' immediate family has seen the beauty of adoption and the ability to transcend biological ties to build a profound and loving family.

OUR FAMILY & TRADITIONS

Travis grew up in Indiana with his two brothers and one sister, and Luis grew up in Florida alongside his older brother.

Combined, we have a big extended family of over 50 cousins and even more second cousins all over the world.

Weekends are spent visiting Travis's brother and dad about 90 minutes away, where we enjoy a game night around the table, always ready to engage in a battle of strategy and luck with our favorite board games. Other times, we visit Travis's sister and niece, where we try to crack the code at an escape room or relax watching a movie. Christmas Eve is a family tradition, going back to before Travis was born. The family still travels to northern Indiana for a big dinner at our cousin's house. After dinner and family photos around the tree, the board games come out and holiday movies begin.

DEAR
expectant mother

We are incredibly grateful that you are considering us as potential parents for your child. We can only imagine the emotional journey you are on, and we want you to know we are here to support you every step of the way. Your child will always be our top priority, and we promise to protect, cherish, and nurture them with all our hearts.

Our home is filled with love, laughter, and a supportive network of family and friends who are eager to welcome our future child. Our parents are especially excited at the prospect of becoming grandparents. We dream of providing your child with a life full of love, adventure, and endless opportunities. We make a promise to you to love them, to provide for them in every possible way, to protect them, and to teach them kindness and empathy for those we share our world with.

This process has been deeply emotional for us, and we understand the magnitude of your decision. Thank you for giving us the chance to fulfill this dream. We promise to honor and respect your wishes and to raise your child with kindness, empathy, and love. We admire your strength and selflessness and look forward to the possibility of building a meaningful relationship with you. Thank you again for considering us as adoptive parents.

WITH LOVE,
TRAVIS & LUIS
